

Call for papers

Version 2020/11/11

Latest information: <http://iragoconference.jp/>

No participation fee

Video conferencing invited talks with an 'avatar-based' poster session.

Invited speakers

- So Nakagawa, "Genome evolution of SARS-CoV-2 and its virological characteristics", Tokai University School of Medicine, Japan
- D.Sundar, "Indian Ayurvedic herb, Ashwagandha for Covid-19 management- Bioinformatics and experimental evidence", Department of Biochemical Engineering and Biotechnology, Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Delhi, INDIA
- Masaaki Kitajima, "Tracking wastewater to monitor COVID-19", Environmental Engineering, Faculty of Engineering, Hokkaido University
- Antoine Bocquet, "Research Communication in the age of COVID-19", Managing Director, Springer Nature (Japan)
- Yuta Kurashina, "Building practical training in department of materials science and engineering through remote teaching", School of Materials and Chemical Technology, Tokyo Institute of Technology, Yokohama

Topics for abstracts include but are not limited to the following areas:

- Observation, Measurement, Monitoring and Evaluation
- Information and computer science
- Medicine and Public Health
- Energy and Environment
- Frontiers of Advanced Science and Technology

 TOKAI UNIVERSITY

Tokyo Tech

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF
ADVANCED INDUSTRIAL SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (AIST)

TOKYO

NOSTER[®]

SPRINGER NATURE

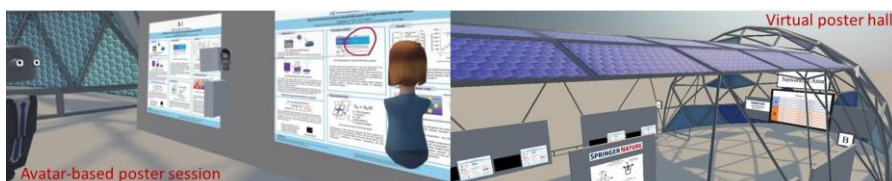

STAM Science and Technology
of Advanced Materials

Nikon

Timetable (provisional)

- ▶ 10:00 to 12:00 Invited talks by Zoom
 - ▶ Multifaceted views on COVID-19
- ▶ 12:00 to 13:00 Lunch break
- ▶ 13:00 to 15:00 Poster session
 - ▶ Avatar poster hall
- ▶ 15:15 to 17:00
 - ▶ International, real-time, Zoom based discussion on the effects of COVID-19.
 - ▶ Participants from schools, universities, industry, hospitals and so on will share their personal experiences since the first reports of the spread of COVID-19.
 - ▶ The discussion will include participants from Europe, Asia, USA.

Virtual Irago Conference 2020 “LIVING with COVID-19”

Online: 11 December 2020

Abstract deadline: 26 November 2020